

Subjects offered to Erasmus students

Department of Constitutional and Administrative Law

1. Name of subject:	General Studies in Law
Short description of the subject:	Within this subject the students get general information of the law branches taught by the Department with presenting the Hungarian special regulations and up-to-dateness regarding the economics, the police, the society and the politics.
Number of classes:	2 classes per week distributed among the subjects
Way of evaluation:	report
Credits:	2 credits per each topic
Topics and lecturers responsible:
a.) Constitutional Law II.:	Issues related to human rights in Hungary. The position of the minorities living in Hungary.
Lecturer responsible:	dr. jur. MÓRÉ Sándor
Language of lecture:	English
b.) Administrative Law	The construction of the Hungarian public administration. Police as a law enforcement agency.
Lecturer responsible:	dr. jur. TÉGLÁSI András
Language of lecture:	English
c.) EU Public Law	The place and role of Hungary in the European Union
Lecturer responsible:	dr. jur. MÓRÉ Sándor
Language of lecture:	English
d.) International Law	Hungary in the international arena. NATO membership and roles in the UN peace keeping operations. The relationship of the Hungarian Police and the EUROPOL.
Lecturer responsible:	dr. jur. NAGY Judit pol. captain
Language of lecture:	English

Department of Corrections

1. Name of subject:	Criminal Pedagogy
Short description of the subject:	Topics to be dealt with: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- General characteristics of the criminal pedagogy.- The possibilities for character formation in closed prisons- International endeavours
Number of classes:	altogether 16 classes academic training altogether 14 classes practical training (visits to prisons)
Way of evaluation:	report (in writing)
Credits:	3 credits
Topics and lecturers responsible:
Lecturer responsible:	Prof. Dr. RUZSONYI Péter corr. colonel
Language of lecture:	English

2. Name of subject: The Social Psychology of Crime

Short description of the subject:

Social psychology describes the societal and social roles, too. In some point of view crime is a societal and social role as well.

Within the course students can get to know the essential operational mechanism of prisons regarding social science, the special harms of prisons, the informal operation of prisons as total institutes and the special relations of drugs and prisons.

In the process of training we analyse the results achieved in the essential experiments of social psychology regarding crime and prisons.

The most up-to-date special literature in English will be dealt with during the seminars.

Number of classes: 20 altogether

Way of evaluation: report (in writing)

Credits: 3 credits

Topics and lecturers responsible:

Lecturer responsible: FLIEGAUF Gergely corr. major

Language of lecture: English

Department of Border Policing

1. Name of subject: Law Enforcement Management Studies

Short description of the subject:

Students should get to know the core management knowledge related to law enforcement agencies. They should study the organizational form of law enforcement agencies and the functions of organizational units on central, regional and local level. They are required to acquire knowledge on issues regarding the management of special law enforcement agencies.

During vocational study-tours they are familiarized with the headquarters of the law enforcement organizations and their operation in fulfilling their everyday and extraordinary tasks.

Number of classes: 28 altogether

Way of evaluation: report (in writing)

Credits: 3 credits

Topics and lecturers responsible:

Lecturer responsible: Dr. VARGA János ret. bdg. lt. colonel

Language of lecture: English

2. Name of subject: Law Enforcement and Security Studies on the Schengen Agreement

Short description of the subject:

Students should get to know the security area of Hungary and the challenges concerning the Hungarian law enforcement. Students are familiarized with the principal regulations of the Schengen Agreement and the Schengen Frontier Control Codex and their impact on the contacts and security area of countries in the Central European region. Students will get acquainted with the border control system according to the demands of the Schengen Agreement. With the help of study-trips they will gain practical experiences in how different organizations fulfil their tasks concerning border control. They will be informed about the tasks and responsibilities of the FRONTEX Agency of the EU and the issues regarding planning and organizational tasks in the implementation process of the international border control Joint Operations.

Number of classes:	28 altogether
Way of evaluation:	report (in writing)
Credits:	3 credits
Topics and lecturers responsible:
Lecturer responsible:	Dr. VARGA János ret. bdg. lt. colonel
Language of lecture:	English

Institute of Foreign Languages

1. Name of subject: Technical Language (foreign language)

Short description of the subject:

Teaching the English, French, German and Russian technical language of law enforcement agencies by development of communicative competence including the use of target language in professional contexts, professional communicative circumstances and in the stages of language usage. It comprises the direct participation in communicative interactions in the target language and presentations held in the target language.

Number of classes: 4 – 6 classes per week

Way of evaluation: report

Credits: 3 credits

Topics and lecturers responsible:

Lecturer responsible: KÁROSINÉ BORSZÉKI Judit

Language of lecture: the chosen foreign language (English, French, German or Russian)

Department of Public Safety

1. Name of subject: Traffic Safety in Europe

Short description of the subject:

The aim of this subject is to get students to know the most important special field related to traffic safety that contribute to the understanding of the different traffic safety of the EU countries and to the information exchange of police experts working in this field in the different countries.

Number of classes: 2 per week

Way of evaluation: report

Credits: 3 credits

Topics and lecturers responsible:

Lecturer responsible: Prof. Dr. IRK Ferenc

Language of lecture: English

Department of Disaster Management

1. Name of subject: The Current Issues of Disaster Management

Participation of Hungary in the International Disaster Management

- a.) Commitments related to cooperation regarding the membership in the UN and its specialized bodies
- b.) Commitments regarding NATO membership related to disaster management
- c.) Commitments related to disaster management regarding EU membership

Lecturer responsible:	dr. jur. MÓGOR Judit first lieutenant of the Fire Service
Language of lecture:	English
Number of classes:	16 altogether
Way of evaluation:	oral report on the chosen topic
Credits:	1 credit

2. Name of subject:	Fire Protection and Civil Protection in Hungary
----------------------------	--

A. The system of the Hungarian civil protection

- a.) The legal and administrative basis of civil protection
- b.) The tasks of civil protection in peace and at war
- c.) Private individuals', and legal personalities' tasks related to civil protection
- d.) The international relationships of civil protection

Lecturer responsible:	dr. jur. MÓGOR Judit first lieutenant of the Fire Service
Language of lecture:	English

B. The theory and practice of fire fighting

- a.) The organization and operation of the Hungarian Fire Service
 - professional
 - voluntary
 - establishment
- b.) The theoretical basis of fire fighting
 - types of fire
 - tactics of fire fighting
 - methods of fire fighting
- c.) The theoretical basis of technical rescue operations
 - types of technical accidents
 - tasks of Fire Service related to technical rescue operations
 - delimiting technical rescue operations from emergency response
- d.) Fire fighting and technical rescue operation in practice
 - system of alarm
 - fittings
 - intervention

Lecturer responsible:	Dr. HESZ József lt. colonel of the Fire Service
Language of lecture:	English
Number of classes:	2 modules that can be chosen separately as well in 20 classes each altogether
Way of evaluation:	in case of a module (A): oral report on the chosen topic, (C): practice
Credits:	1 credit per module

3.	Name of subject:	Personal and Technical Conditions of Disaster Management and Fire Protection in Hungary
-----------	-------------------------	--

Training related to disaster management experts and fire fighters

- a.) The structure and legal basis of the training
- b.) The institutional system of the training
- c.) Levels of training
- d.) Training and human resources management

Lecturer responsible: Prof. Dr. BLESZITY János major general of the Fire Service

Language of lecture: English

Number of classes: 20 classes altogether

Way of evaluation: oral report

Credits: 1 credit

Department of Criminalistics

1.	Name of subject:	Criminalistics Studies Related to Crime Scene Investigations
-----------	-------------------------	---

Short description of the subject:

This subjects integrates the necessary studies (on general theoretical, crime-solving techniques and crime-solving tactics) for crime scene investigations. The aim of this subject is to teach students how to carry out crime scene investigations and to fulfil subtasks of technical feature and to make conclusions based on the results of the crime scene investigations and to apply them in the further process of the criminal procedure.

Number of classes: 22 altogether

Way of evaluation: evaluation of the course work

Credits: 2 credits

Topics and lecturers responsible:

Lecturer responsible: dr. BALLÁNÉ Dr. FÜSZTER Erzsébet pol. colonel

Language of lecture: English

Department of Psychology

1.	Name of subject:	Criminal Psychology
-----------	-------------------------	----------------------------

Short description of the subject:

Criminal Psychology studies are needed for understanding the evolution and manifestation of antisocial personality disorder, for the effective conduct with the citizens and criminals, for the measures that are taken and for meeting the requirements of law enforcement and police posts.

Number of classes: 14

Way of evaluation: test in writing

Credits: 3 credits

Topics and lecturers responsible:

Lecturer responsible: CSERNYIKNÉ Dr. PÓTH Ágnes

Language of lecture: English

Department of Management Theory

1. Name of subject:	Studies in Management Theory
Short description of the subject:	The aim of the course is to get students to know the current and essential topics of the law enforcement management.
Number of classes:	12 altogether
Way of evaluation:	report
Credits:	2 credits
Topics and lecturers responsible:
Lecturer responsible:	Prof. Dr. MOLNÁR Miklós
Language of lecture:	English

Department of Social Sciences

1. Name of subject:	Social Impacts of Police Activities
Short description of the subject:	The conflict situations the police officers face during their work is dealt with an integrated approach. Those issues - related to sociology, politology, ethics and communication - are emphasized by which - in case of being reacted creatively - the impact of contribution and intervention can be harmonized with the social demands. The aim of the subject is the improvement of social intelligence.
Number of classes:	30 altogether
Way of evaluation:	report based on a situation
Credits:	3 credits
Topics and lecturers responsible:
Lecturer responsible:	Dr. KRÉMER Ferenc
Language of lecture:	English

Department of Physical Education and Martial Arts

1. Name of subject:	General Physical Education
Short description of the subject:	Development of special physical abilities <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - improvement of the governing of movements (by sports games) - improvement of fitness (by indoor and outdoor sports)
Number of classes:	2 per week
Way of evaluation:	evaluation of the course work
Credits:	3 credits
Topics and lecturers responsible:
Lecturer responsible:	Dr. Freyer Tamás
Language of lecture:	English

2.	Name of subject:	Tactics of Taking Police Measures
-----------	-------------------------	--

Short description of the subject:

- Theory and practice of combating passive and active resistance
- physical coercion
 - parrying attacks, counter-attacks
 - safe-keeping of guns and instruments

Number of classes: 2 per week

Way of evaluation: evaluation of the course work

Credits: 3 credits

Topics and lecturers responsible:

Lecturer responsible: KELEMEN András

Language of lecture: English

International Relations

1.	Name of subject:	Hungarian Language
-----------	-------------------------	---------------------------

Short description of the subject:

Teaching Hungarian language in English as a transmitter language. Vocabulary, grammar. Basic expressions. Finding one's way on the basis of notices used at public places.

Number of classes: 6 per week

Way of evaluation: evaluation of the course work

Credits: 3 credits

Topics and lecturers responsible:

Lecturer responsible: dr. univ. KISS Rita

Language of lecture: English